Dear Sir,

I have instructions from Mr. Wm. P. W. Dana of Paris, to enquire of you if it will be agreeable to you to exhibit an oil painting of his work, now in New York, at the Corcoran Art-Gallery. It is a Marine picture of some six or seven feet in width, by perhaps four feet in height. Will you kindly write me on what conditions you exhibit, as to transportation, length of time picture remain, etc.

I do not know whether Mr. Dana has the pleasure of personal acquaintance with you, but you perhaps know of him as an American artist.

Please address

New York - 2754
Dec 29th 1882 -

Mr MacLeod Esq.

Dear Sir.

I have given directions that W- Dura's picture of "The Breakers" should be forwarded to your care, in accordance with your note of Decth 15th. It is to leave New York tomorrow, & I enclose herewith the paper of rules, which I have signed. May I ask the favor of you to send a copy of rules to W- Dura, for which I enclose an addressed envelope. In reply to your inquiries, the picture was painted, if my memory serves me, in 1880, as I think it was in the Salon of Hale Spring. If I am wrong, it was in the Universal Espth of 178-

I had not time to write to ask Mr. Dana, but perhaps the picture is dated.

The subject is the Corbiere Rocks, on the Coast of Jersey, Channel Islands. Mr. Dana passed some months in those isles, painting from nature, & this scene is one of the boldest & most picturesque.

As you say that you have not known Mr. Dana's works, it may not be amiss for me to mention that they have usually had centre places in the Paris Salon - and his picture "Solitude" (the Sea without any accessories) was medalled at the Ex<sup>n</sup> of 1878.
It was purchased at the time for Count Salfy's Paris gallery -

The price of The Breakers is $2000 (Two thousand Dollars) - and I trust you may be successful in disposing of it. Hoping to hear from you of the safe arrival of the painting, and that you have been able to give it an advantageous position in the Gallery.

I remain

Very truly yours

Anna H. Dana

Dear Sir:

I find that a former insurance will not suffice for Mr. Dana's picture of the "Breakers" which was to be forwarded by you yesterday.
I will therefore ask you to kindly have the picture insured, unless the insurance on the Corcoran Gallery secures the artist from loss. If it must be measured apart. I believe it is usually based on 2/3 the value, so that I would have it for $1500 - True

Faithfully yours

W. B. Dana.
